REGION Vinhos Verde Wines/ Sub-region Sousa

TERROIR Quinta de Linhares is located in Penafiel, sub-region of Sousa, in the demarcated Vinhos Verdes Region. The vineyard is exposed to South-Southwest, between the elevations of 250/300m of altitude. The climate is moderate to dry with low temperature variations. Winters are not very harsh and summers are mild and dry. Although it is not directly exposed to Atlantic influence, it is felt due to the low relief. The type of soil is Sandy-Loam, rich in nutrients such as Phosphorus and Potassium and poor in Calcium and Magnesium, producing low PH wines. The granitic origin composition, gives minerality to the wines.

VINIFICATION Manual harvest in 25kg boxes. After a careful selection of the grapes, destemming, partial pre-fermentative maceration of 10 to 12 hours and crushing in a pneumatic press were carried out. Fermentation took place in stainless steel vats at a controlled temperature between 16 and 17°C - for approximately 15/20 days. After a stage of 3 /4 months in stainless steel vats, it aged for 6 months in oak barrels.

TASTING NOTES Wine with a golden yellow color, intense aroma, marked by vegetal and floral notes. On the palate it is elegant, harmoniously combining a pronounced complexity from barrel aging with fruity and floral notes. Fresh and persistent finish.
